FIGHTING MONEY LAUNDERING: Guyana is set to join the Egmont Group in July in a new commitment to the Anti-Money Laundering Committee. The Financing of Terrorism Act in parliament, Attorney General Mubhar Ali Hasnall (pictured) has announced. Admission to the Egmont Group will boost the country's capacity to fight Money Laundering offences. Story, Page 13

GOLDEN GIRL: Jamaica's Shelly Ann Fraser-Pryce was gold in the women's 100-metre event at the 2022 World Athletics Championships in Eugene, Oregon, on Sunday. It was Fraser-Pryce's 45th gold medal in the 100m event at the World Championships. Fraser-Pryce, 35, previously won gold at the 2009 Berlin, 2013 Moscow, 2015 Beijing and 2019 Doha Games. In a rare stand-out feat, Jamaican Fraser-Pryce won in 10.67 seconds in a new championship record. It was a clean sweep by Jamaica as Shericka Jackson took silver in a personal best of 10.73 and defending two-time Olympic champion Elaine Thompson-Harbuck was third in 10.81. Seven of the eight finalists dipped below 11 seconds. The Asha-Sarah of Great Britain was fourth in a national record of 10.85. Majaag Kambhojji of Switzerland ended fifth in 10.91, American Aisha Huddles took in 10.92, Marie-Josée Ta Lou of Ivory Coast recorded in 10.93 and American Melissa Jefferson eighth in 11.03.
